Research Interest

My research lies at the intersection of statistical machine learning and its combinations with real-world applications. I am interested in probabilistic methods, deep generative models, representation learning and meta learning. These developed models and algorithms have been applied to time series modeling, text analysis, natural language processing, few-shot generation (classification), and automatic radar target recognition.

Education

- Post-doctoral. The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shenzhen (2020 -2022.12)
  Advised by Hongyuan Zha
- Ph.D. Xidian University, Xi'an (2014.09-2020.08)
  in Signal and Information Processing, Advised by Bo Chen
- B.Sc. The North University of China, Taiyuan (2010.09-2014.07)
  in Optical Information Science and Technology
